IDEAS LAB

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING, ART AND MATHS!

Meet Stephanie Beaupark, an Indigenous Science Lecturer, researcher, and curator!

K-Z: Hi Stephanie! Can you tell us about your role as Associate Lecturer in the School of Geography and Sustainable Communities at UOW?

S: I teach 400 undergraduate UOW students about First Nations perspectives of geography. I focus on the concept of Country as more than what makes up the physical landscape; Country is a central part of our connection to culture, identity, and ancestral place. My connection to Country and culture inspired my PhD research, where I'm investigating the chemistry of colour found in natural dyes that I use for making art.

K-Z: What did you do before this role?

S: I completed a double bachelor degree in 2019; it was a Bachelor of Science (Chemistry)/ Bachelor of Creative Arts (Visual Arts), and I minored in archaeology. I chose this to become an Indigenous art conservator in a gallery or museum. I tutored high school and uni students and realised I love teaching! I took on every opportunity, like being a curatorial assistant at the UOW Art collection. I gained understanding and skills in atmospheric chemistry, archaeology, science communication and curation in several internships. Doing a bit of everything helped me see what I was passionate about, and the direction I wanted my career to go.

K-Z: What inspired you to study chemistry and visual art?

S: I was always interested in using natural materials for making things. I loved making potions in my backyard as a kid, using anything I could to make textures and colours. I studied chemistry and visual arts since those subjects made me feel happiest and challenged.

K-Z: Your study of the colour chemistry of natural dyes from Australian native trees won a 2023 Australian Academy of Science Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Scientist Award! Why did you research this topic?

S: As an artist, I love making natural dyes and I have been using this process in my artmaking for a long time. It's a way I connect to Country and better understand the natural world. For example, which plants are found at different times of year, and how the season affects the colour of the dye. Natural dyes can be made by boiling leaves in water and adding fabric. You can get a variety of colours from natural dyes, depending on the species of plant. This research came from wanting to understand where the colour comes from in the natural dyes I use to make art.

LEGO LE

WE QUIZ HAMISH BLAKE AND RYAN 'BRICKMAN' MCNAUGHT ABOUT THE GRANDEST SERIES

K-Z: Hey Hamish and Ryan! How would you describe LEGO Masters Grand Masters in five words?

R: Grand, grander, grandest, grandly, and grandiose!

H: Unprecedented, grandest, tiny, plastic, bricks.

K-Z: Are there any special pieces in the Brick Pit this season?

R: We polled previous contestants to see what they would like to see in the Brick Pit; we've incorporated a few thousand more of the parts that they use a lot and are their specialty.

K-Z: Hamish, how many LEGO bricks or minifigs have you taken over the years?

H: OK, only cos I like you guys, look, honestly, probably in the thousands.

K-Z: Did you take the LEGO goat from the LEGO Masters Bricksmas Special?

H: No, they guarded that too tightly!

EGENDS

OF LEGO MASTERS!

K-Z: Funniest moment this season?

R: I can't give away too much, but Hamish gets busted stealing! That's pretty funny.

H: I don't want to give too much away, but at one point I was dressed as a mer-man and I fell and couldn't get up. The contestants really did seem to enjoy my helpless flapping.

K-Z: What was the best prank on set?

R: Probably when Hamish locked the Brick Pit and wouldn't let other contestants in. It was funny watching them try to get past him!

H: In season one, telling a winning team they could smash another team's LEGO as a joke (to see how they would react) was fun. This season, I spend a long time trying to sneak up on people dressed as a ninja and, well, I had fun – not sure about everyone else!

K-Z: Have there ever been any funny moments that never ended up making it into the show?

H: We made a game show one episode called 'Deal with the Devil'. I was dressed up as a demon and contestants could win time.

K-Z: If you could sneak out any LEGO Masters build, what would it be?

H: Scotty and Owen's Strum King arcade machine, and Gus and Dave's finale build.

Images: iStock, Nine

Shout out to all the K-Zone and LEGO fans! – Eli

K-Z: Ryan, what's the most challenging build Hamish has asked you to do?

R: Some of the birthday cakes I've helped him with have been pretty crazy. He did ask for a machine to help automate making breakfast once, so that probably counts as the hardest.

K-Z: If you could add one silly rule to challenges, what would it be?

R: I'm a believer in letting the contestants do their thing. After all, they are incredible with LEGO, and the show isn't anything without them. I think my rule would only be for a short time, like having to build in welding gloves.

H: I would love to see each team get to name one type of piece that another team can't use.

Check out more of our chat with Hamish and Ryan at K-ZONE.COM.AU

K-Z: Would you rather live in LEGO Jurassic World, or in Joss and Henry's Spider House from Season 4?

R: Jurassic World for sure! That house spider is super scary. I have built a lot of LEGO dinosaurs, so they don't scare me too much.

H: That house still gives me nightmares and I suspect you know that. This interview is over!

SUPER SEQUEL

FIVE THINGS WE'D LOVE TO SEE IN THE NEXT SUPER MARIO BROS. MOVIE!

NEW DONK CITY

Picture Mario flying his airship to 'the city that never leaps'. He'd sing with Mayor Pauline on a skyscraper (like in Super Mario Odyssey), or ride through T-Rex Alleyway while being chased by a massive dino!

FUR-REAL STORYLINES

We saw Cat Mario, but how purr-fect would it be if a bunch of Super Bells appeared in a scene and Luigi, Peach and Toad all transformed into Cat forms? The ability to climb walls, pounce mid-air, and scratch enemies would be really handy in pursuit of treats – uhh, Bowser.

FOLDED FRIENDS + FOES

What if everything in the sequel was made of paper? Think Paper Mario: The Origami King if Olly got his wish. How long would it take to fold Peach's Castle?

NEXT LEVEL INTERACTIVITY

Another awesome idea for a scene would be getting the audience to help Mario collect coins and dodge enemies. Like in Super Mario Run, but instead of tapping a phone to make our plumber pal move, everyone would have to put down their popcorn and tap on the big screen!

A MAJOR MINECRAFT + MARIO MASHUP

Inspired by the best mashup pack of all time, we want to see a blocky Mushroom Kingdom with Dry Bones Skeletons, Pokey Creepers, Hammer Bros. Zombies and Koopa Troopa Sheep.

BUILD A PIR

CELEBRATE MARIO HITTING THE BIG SCREEN AND FIND OUT HOW TO BUILD A LEGO

1 IT'S-A LEGO!

Time to make the pot, leaves and stem! Use any colour for the pot – I chose classic brown. This 2x2 round brick has a hole in the middle, which holds the stem securely! Any bar of any length will work for the stem.

2 TRICKY TRAP

Next, use a clip piece and a sausage to get the angle for the Piranha Plant's iconic jaws! Now, that's what I call NPU (Nice Part Usage). You can use any colour for either of these parts, but I chose black!

3 SPOT THE DETAIL

Stack some small plates of different colours on top of each other. The white ones will be the spots, but feel free to make those any other colour as well!

4 WATCH OUT

You can use a few curved bricks and smooth tiles to create the round shape of the Piranha Plant's head. Place those over the section you created in Step 3!

ANHA PLANT

PIRANHA PLANT WITH LEGO MASTER JOSS WOODYARD!

5 CHOMP

By using rounded plates, we're able to build lips and even a row of teeth! If you don't have teeth, that's OK! Some Piranha Plants don't have them. Repeat Steps 3 to 5 again to make the other jaw!

6 LEVEL UP

After you have made the two jaws of the Piranha Plant, it's time to connect them to the stem! You can use the sausage piece that was added in Step 2 and place the jaws on each end. After that, you're done!

PIRANHA PLANT MASTER

Congratulations! You have just built your own LEGO Piranha Plant! Wahoo!

DEFEND THE

A HERO'S GUIDE TO MINECRAFT LEGENDS!

WHAT TO DO

Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to save the Overworld from snouty invaders, AKA Piglins!

WHAT TO PACK

You'll need a pretty solid toolkit to rid the world of Piglins!

- ☐ The Hero's Sword: Excellent for scaring off the enemy.
- ☐ A lute: Use it to ask Allays to help you.
- ☐ The Banner of Courage: Wave it to rally the troops.
- ☐ The Flames of Creation: Summon allies to a fight.

KNOW YOUR ENEMY

Getting to know the Piglins will help you discover the secret to their crushing defeat!

- Grunters are the smallest and weakest type, plus low on health.
- Runts carry oversized weapons, so watch out!
- Piggos are good at breaking down your defences.
- Bruisers have terrifying swords and strong armour.
- Lava Launchers will fire lava cubes right at you.
- The Portal Guards wield extendable hammers that deal a lot of damage.

CRAFT YOUR STRATEGY

There's more than one way to solve the Piglin problem, so plan to your strengths. In Minecraft, it always pays to have a Plan B (and C) up your sleeve.

BUILD AND IMPROVE

When you first enter the Overworld, you'll spy the Well of Fate. The urge to roam is strong, but return to the start and visit this; it will allow you to build improvements that power up your hero's abilities.

OVERWORLD

DON'T GO IT ALONE

There are friends everywhere in the Overworld – even old enemies, like Creepers and Skeletons. These mobs are your allies this time around, and will help you on your quest. As you explore, you will meet all kinds of creatures, with skills like super speed and impressive climbing abilities. Take 'em as a mount and watch the Piglins sweat! You can also swing into co-op mode and recruit up to three real life friends to back you up along the way.

FAST TRAVEL

Head to a village fountain to quickly travel to other villages you already discovered. Piglins love to destroy fountains, so make sure you defend them!

LOOK FOR LAPIS

Lapis will help you spawn a few new allies in your fight against the Piglins! Bad news is, you can only find lapis on the Piglins. Yep, they carry it. Gulp.

CHECK YOUR RESOURCES

The Overworld is jam-packed with all the resources you could ever need. Stock up before a battle – your Allay pals will do the work for you.

BOOSTS

Speed wheat and bounce caps get you through the biomes faster. Spot 'em all across the Overworld.

Minecraft Legends is out on PC, PS4, PS5, Xbox One, Xbox Series X|S and Switch on April 18!

MINECRAFT MOMENTS

WHICH HISTORIC ADDITION TO THE BRICKY GAME DID YOU TAKE FOR GRANTED?

1. COBBLESTONE

Cobblestone was actually one of the first two blocks in Minecraft, with grass. It actually existed before Minecraft! The creator, Notch, designed cobblestone for a different game he was working on before 'Cave Game'. That was the name before it became Minecraft and was officially released in November 2011.

2. REDSTONE

In March 2013, the Redstone update changed the world of Minecraft forever! It added those useful Redstone elements like Hopper, Block of Redstone, Redstone Comparator, Dropper and Daylight Sensor! The most advanced Redstone builds wouldn't even exist without this addition! Can you imagine no Redstone?

3. UPDATE AQUATIC

In 2018, the Update Aquatic revamped the oceans, adding new mobs, blocks, items and structures! We got blue ice, coral, kelp, sea pickles, wood, and turtle eggs, plus debug sticks, exploration maps, hearts of the sea, buckets of fish, tridents, and more. Suddenly the water was clear and teeming with fish, dolphins, phantoms and turtles. This addition made the oceans a much more exciting place to explore, and players were quickly building incredible aquatic bases. Don't forget using dolphins to help find loot!

4. NETHER UPDATE

In 2020, the Nether Update gave us Piglins, Hoglins, Netherite, the Crimson Forest Biome and Nether Wastes Biome, and more. With new biomes added, players spent more time in the nether after years of mostly ignoring it! The soul sand valleys, crimson forests, nether wastes, warped forests and basalt deltas were suddenly waiting to be explored.

5. MINECRAFT LEGENDS

This new action-strategy game is a spin-off that takes place in the Minecraft universe during a piglin invasion from the Nether! As the Nether corruption spreads, the player must bring their banner and join the mobs to defend their Overworld home. This amazing tale is either myth, or history!

6. UP NEXT

The newest addition in the 1.20 Update will be the camel mob (chosen by Mojang as a new desert-dwelling mount), and the sniffer (community mob vote winner)! Camels will hang out in desert villages, walking around and flopping their lil ears! They seat two players, so bring a mate on your next trek. Don't miss their special horizontal dash ability for crossing ravines! The sniffer is an extinct overworld mob that you must resurrect by finding their eggs via the new Archaeology feature. Sniffers will dig up ancient seeds!

BRINGING YOU THE COOLEST LOOT AROUND!

PSST! Ultra Rare Gigatusk has a bonus Water Blast Attack, where its trunk squirts out water!

HEROES OF GOO JIT ZU GLOW SHIFTERS HERO PACK

Let's glow! Heroes of Goo Jit Zu are back with a new series – now the squishy and stretchy figures glow in the dark. Each Glow Shifter has a different goo filling and texture. There are six Hero Packs, with Blazagon, Tyro, Tritops, Bengal, Scorpius (a villain) and the Ultra Rare, Gigatusk!

UNLEASH THE POWER

When you nab a figure, look for the liquid inside and the special core. When the figure is exposed to a light source, the core makes the figure glow. Squeeze to crush the core, then watch the gel beads and goo release! The figure's Goo-formation and inner powers activate over time; you can see the beads expand and the goo mixes with the liquid. Your Goo Jit Zu hero will glow even more when the core's contents spread through the body. Get the lights shining and enjoy the glowing, gooey action! The longer you leave it under a light, the longer the glow.

FINAL VERDICT

Fidget fans will enjoy the Hero Packs! All the figures are so stretchy, and the textures are super satisfying! We love that you can find a character that is squishy, stretchy, mushy, oozy, gooey, or crunchy. Hero Pack figures also have a great stretch – up to 50cm when you stretch both arms at once. We've seen our share of glow in the dark toys and we're impressed by the glow factor!

HEROES OF GOO JIT ZU GLOW SHIFTERS VERSUS PACK

Every hero needs a villain to battle, and when you enter a boss battle, you wanna level up! The special Versus Packs come with an exclusive Ultraglow hero (Blazagon or Tyro) and one enemy. The Ultraglow Blazagon takes on Shadowfang Viper, while the Ultraglow Tyro battles Shadowclaw Rock Jaw.

RRP $32.00

LET THE BATTLES BEGIN

You need to crush the Ultraglow hero's core to unleash the inner power and Goo-formation. The villains in the Versus Packs don't have cores (and don't glow) but you can stretch and squish them. We dig Shadowfang Viper's tail too. The villains are deffo still primed for battle!

FINAL VERDICT

The exclusive Ultraglow figures do have a more vibrant glow compared to the regular Glow Shifter Hero Packs. While the villains don't glow, they still have satisfying textures and colours. So fun! Shadowfang Viper is fun to stretch, and the goo is a cool colour when stretched! If you are collecting Heroes of Goo Jit Zu Glow Shifter figures, try mixing your Versus Pack characters with the Hero Packs to change up your battle rotation!

HERO QUEST

THE QUIRKY CREW IN ARGONUTS ARE READY TO CRAFT AN ADVENTURE!

FOLLOW YOUR DREAMS

Pattie is a smart and adventurous mouse who once dreamed of being a hero, but after being doubted by others, she gave up. While working in the port sewers, an opportunity for adventure suddenly arrives, and Pattie decides to give that dream another chance! However, her protective friend, Sam, doesn't want to see her in danger. Along for the ride is Chickos, an older seagull who can no longer fly. He loves danger and misses his old adventurous life!

LIVING LEGENDS

Argonuts is set in Ancient Greece, and includes characters from Greek myth like the gods (and brothers) Zeus and Poseidon. Legendary hero, Jason, is known for nabbing the Golden Fleece 80 years ago. Jason's actions brought peace to the town of Yolcos, and he is Pattie's role model! Unfortunately, that peace is now being threatened. Jason wants to leap into action, but he isn't quite the hero he used to be, and he's definitely going to need help!

MONSTER MAYHEM

Pattie and her crew encounter strange creatures on their adventures. The monstrous and punk Cyclops giants train beasts like the griffin and hydra. Watch out for the giant robot, Nazar (designed by the Cyclops society), ninja rats, a snotty baby Kraken, and massive scorpions! The ninja rats were actually inspired by film director David Alaux's 12-year-old son, who is a massive fan of Naruto and Dragon Ball and always talks about ninjas!

Older K-Zoners can try building a tops team and tackle tricky threats in the turn-based tussles of Marvel's Midnight Suns!

Otherwise, get lost in an epic campaign filled with customisable characters in Marvel Future Revolution.

▶ FUTURE AVENGERS

Watch out for a solo Iron Man adventure, and a game set in WWII with Captain America and Black Panther. There's a Marvel World of Heroes mobile game from the Pokémon Go devs that will be released soon too!

DID YOU KNOW?

This is the sixth game in the SteamWorld universe! It kicked off with SteamWorld Tower Defense in 2010. After that, we had no digs at SteamWorld Dig. SteamWorld Heist stole our hearts. We dug SteamWorld Dig 2, and loved the hands dealt in SteamWorld Quest: Hand of Gilgamech. Plus, SteamWorld: Headhunter is on the way!

STEAMWORLD BUILD

Turn up the heat and let off some steam in this new building game that uses old-school methods and has top-to-bottom surprises!

SteamWorld Build is the next building block in a sweet series that loves to shift genres. It's SteamWorld plus building (obvs). We deffo detect ya digging into some architecture. Build a place that will keep the steambot citizens happy. Housing, electricity, and all the other basics are necessary, but don't forget entertainment places so they can let off steam. That's just the surface level. Dig a little bit deeper for the other big element of the game. A massive mine deep below your town is stuffed with treasures, like ancient tech or awesome ores. Be careful though! This mine may seem empty, but you are not alone. So, why all the exciting excavating? To dodge global annihilation (natch)! Keep your wily workers safe from any creepy critters and collapsing walls as you dig deeper. There are five totally different maps to beat, and they are stacked with sweet secrets. You can always crank up the difficulty if you want more thrills than chills.

THE CREW MOTORFEST

Forget about the rest; coz this racing game has full-throttle expressed that it is the best at getting that heart pumping in your chest!

Welcome to Jurassic Park. Wait, no. Jurassic World. OK, soz. It isn't either of those, but The Crew Motorfest is set in dino-free Oahu, which is close to Kauai (AKA Jurassic Park/World). There aren't any dinos tearing up the island, but Motorfest lets you tear up tracks in a Forza Horizon style island festival. It's all in the name! For the 'fest' part of the situation, you have the best car-loving festival. For the 'motor' part, there's a rad range of road-ripping speedsters. We're talking hundreds of car choices! These rides are built for ruling roads, but also tracking top times off-track. So, get hooning through the green streets of Honolulu. Gain some sweet speed tearing down a volcano, then fang it through a rainforest and pull up on a beach. Get up to pace with a little solo racing, then embrace the 'Crew' part of the name and start zipping around the stunning island paradise with a few speedy mates.

KIRBY'S RETURN TO DREAM LAND DELUXE

The luxe setting of this deluxe game is a peak planet stuffed with stacks of stuff to see and do!

We love a good return! Return of the Jedi, The Return of the King, and now, Kirby's Return to Dream Land Deluxe. Best bit on the return front? This Kirby return is actually a return of a return... of a return! It was orig on Wii, then on Wii U, and now it's on Switch in deft Deluxe format! Everyone's favourite vacuum cleaner with limbs is on Planet Popstar. Power your way through this Kirby puff-tastic adventure solo, or recruit the handy help of marooned mate Magolor (it's optional). Our fave way to play is cool co-op. Toss Joy-Cons to up to three other players. Drop in for a bash. They can drop out whenever they like, and the fun keeps going. Plus, team up for powerful Team Attack combos. There is a ton of content, plus stacks of stages, and master enough of Main Mode to unlock the magical Merry Magoland mode!

Don't get too attached to any one copy ability. There are so many options! Take one ability for a spin, then ditch it by holding 'Y' or minus. You can still inhale bricks and smaller foes to lob, but our favourite copy abilities come later on in the levels. Don't miss out!

PRO TIP!
Got into a biff with other settlers? Settle down! Try to keep brawls on your side of the border. Use healing towers to protect the borders. Keep your troops near the towers. Lure in foes with a daring decoy, then make short work of 'em. After the brawl, heal your fighters back to full HP.

PSST!
The Settlers: New Allies is wandering onto Switch, PS4, PS5, Xbox One and Xbox Series X|S in 2023!

THE SETTLERS: NEW ALLIES

Like New Zealand vs Old Zealand, the New Allies of this latest Settlers game have shifted to a just-as-green game world!

Settle in for the unsettlingly settled story of The Settlers: New Allies. New Allies is the latest legendary entry in a long legacy – 30 years of Settlers games! Like its old allies, New Allies is all about chill base building. Forget about cars and skyscrapers. This isn't a city builder... It's old-school. Old, old, old-school. We're talking about dirt roads, rickety houses and magic (natch). The fully fun formula is as simple as it is fun. First, you need a few peeps around, so build some homes. After that, you will definitely wanna get those resources flowing. Put your peeps to work bringing it all in. It's almost relaxing to watch them build and gather. Once that's done, it's time to expand. First, sort out your base, then your buildings. Finally, you slap down some borders. There are many wonders to discover in the wild, plus some wild fights. Settle in for the story, but stay for the great gameplay!

PRO TIP!
Stack your food items ahead of customers, especially at the start of each challenge. You know the Krusty customers are hungry, so get the jump on it! Keep an eye on the number of customers remaining, and keep those items cooking. You don't even get punished for cooking extra (phew).

PSST! SpongeBob SquarePants: Krusty Cook-Off is also on iOS and Android!

SPONGEBOB SQUAREPANTS: KRUSTY COOK-OFF – EXTRA KRUSTY EDITION

In this fast-paced kitchen, you need to get to the bottom of cooking up a storm with SpongeBob SquarePants and his mates in Bikini Bottom!

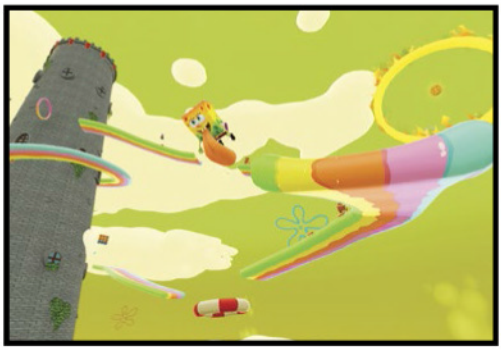

The full-flavoured mobile game has jumped onto Switch with extra fun. The SpongeBob SquarePants: Krusty Cook-Off – Extra Krusty Edition has all the goods. The full game and DLC, bonus extras, less time waiting, and more time cooking some good grub. What's it all about? Well, it's a wild cook-off through the kooky kitchens of Bikini Bottom. You start out with SpongeBob SquarePants and his ol' RoundPan cooking a few pancakes outside his home. There are stacks of hangry customers, but it all starts out pretty calm. Only two cooking plates and one coffee mug. Get the buttons memorised, coz you need to tap fast to feed everyone! Master the art of serving customers faster for sweet rewards, like in-game golden tips and loads of likes. Spend your legendary loot and customise the look of your place. Plus, upgrade the gear, other rad restaurants, and new food combos! Bon appetit!

SPONGEBOB SQUAREPANTS: THE COSMIC SHAKE

The game devs were rad enough to share some cosmically rad tips for the latest, greatest SpongeBob SquarePants game!

▶ TOTES JELLY

The Tartar Jelly holds a bottle of Tartar sauce between his teeth and shoots it at our hero SpongeBob. If you're having trouble and want to take out this pesky threat, use the Karate Kick for the first hit, then follow up with a Ground Pound!

▶ DODGY INVINCIBILITY

Dodge is a handy ability. Tap it a lot to get around the world faster. Dodge also briefly gives SpongeBob invulnerability. Pop the ability at just the right time to avoid most incoming attacks – like those devastating roar attacks from the Jelly Maker foes!

▶ BEAUT BACKTRACKING

Every time you beat a level, you might want to head back to Bikini Bottom. Why? Well, new characters travel there! Have a chat with all the new peeps hanging around town for new LOLs. You should definitely visit the Downtown Skyline after beating the Pirates world. The Swing and Slingshot will let you tackle a neat airborne challenge.

GET THE SCOOP ON NICK NEWS HOST, COLE ZOERNLEIB!

K-Z: Hi Cole! Which Nick News story has been the strangest?

C: Definitely when Nakita and I were turned into a cupcake and a donut!

K-Z: When did you struggle not to laugh when filming?

C: When shooting on site, it can be difficult to get animals to do what you want. For instance, there have been a lot of takes where I'm talking about a shark and it didn't swim by.

K-Z: Any set secrets?

C: In between takes, we like to get up and run around the studio!

K-Z: Do you have any skills that might surprise K-Zoners?

C: I'm a surprisingly good cook, and I love following recipes and making something new. I'm learning to play the piano, as well as sing and dance.

K-Z: Which Nickelodeon show would you want to live in?

C: Avatar The Last Airbender! Who wouldn't want elemental abilities?

Watch Cole's shout out to K-Zoners at KZONE.COM.AU

K-Z: If the Nick News hosts were stuck in an escape room, what is your useful talent?

C: I love word puzzles and riddles, so solving those in an escape room situation would be my skill.

K-Z: Would you rather be slimed once in a week without warning, or every day at a specific time?

C: Specific time, to mentally and physically prepare.

K-Z: Any tips for K-Zoners who want to host a show?

C: Be keen to learn new things, and willing to accept feedback.

THE NICK NEWS HOST MOST LIKELY TO...

Eat gross food for a dare: Silia! She's super brave and wouldn't be grossed out by anything.

Trip on nothing: Ava would look out for others and not focus on where she was going.

Pull a prank: Nakita is a trickster – she would be able to pull off tricking someone.

Make everyone laugh: Leyla is really witty and funny.

Win at Mario Kart: Me! I have three siblings – lots of practice.

Suddenly start dancing: All of us! Dance is something we are all passionate about, so if one of us is dancing, the rest are bound to!

NEVERLAND SECRETS

FLY INTO ADVENTURE WITH ALEXANDER MOLONY FROM PETER PAN & WENDY!

I FOUND OUT I WOULD BE PETER PAN...

When I was at a violin lesson, and saw my mum outside, which was strange because I walk home. She said I got the role, and my first words were to ask for chocolate mousse!

I DID MOST OF MY OWN FIGHTING AND FLYING STUNTS, BUT...

I had two stunt doubles who did the more dangerous things like jumping off cliffs – even though I really wanted to do that! Flying was amazing. After our flying screen test before filming, the stunt crew gave me and the Darlings special flying achievement plaques!

A SIMILARITY I SHARE WITH PETER IS...

I'm a big prankster. I was the oldest child cast member, but I don't think you could tell; I loved to run around and instigate water fights! I definitely don't want to grow up!

You can read more of our chat with Alexander at KZONE.COM.AU

MY FAVOURITE STUNT TO DO WAS...

The big fight between Peter and Hook on Skull Rock. There were moves and smaller sequences that added up to make what you will see (including on a dinghy); it took a lot of practice. I felt proud when we filmed and it came together. When we finished filming in Skull Rock, I got to swim and it was so fun!

THE LEGO SET FOR THE MOVIE IS...

Insane – I love LEGO! I actually gave the kid cast and some crew members LEGO minifigs of themselves as wrap gifts! It's so cool to have a figure of my own now!

THE FUNNIEST MOMENT WAS WHEN...

Ever (AKA Wendy) and I did a flying sequence. It was a race, where Wendy ends up pulling into the lead. After we got the shots, I had a word with the stunt riggers and next time, Ever went flying backwards – much to her surprise! Her reaction was priceless.

SURF'S UP... AND UP... AND UP!

German surfer Sebastian Steudtner broke the record for riding the largest wave (unlimited) in the male category in October 2020. The historic wave was a massive 26.21m high, off the coast of Praia do Norte, Nazaré, Portugal. Sebastian's impressive Guinness World Record was officially announced during a special certificate presentation in May 2022. Nazaré is famous for its powerful waves, thanks to the conditions created by the underwater Nazaré Canyon, and the previous wave record from 2017 was at Nazaré. Video of Sebastian's ride at Nazaré went viral, and he even won the Biggest Tow Award at the 2021 Red Bull Big Wave Awards. The record-breaking athlete has also won the World Surf League Biggest Wave Award in 2010, 2015, and 2021. Sebastian first started surfing at 16 years old, after convincing his parents to let him move to Hawaii alone!

SLIDE TRAGEDY

When I was little, I was at Bunnings and there was a slide. I wet my pants when I was on the top, and had to block the slide so no one else could go on it. That was so embarrassing!

PRANKS!

SIMPLE STRATEGIES FOR SUBTERFUGE AND SHENANIGANS!

K-ZONER PRANK BLANKET BETRAYAL

This isn't a complicated prank, but it is annoying! Tuck a lot of the sheet on your sibling's bed under the end of the mattress, so only half is on the bed. The next time they go to bed, they'll only have half a sheet and be frustrated trying to fix it!

Chanse, WA

BREAD BEDLAM

Take a slice of bread and dab a small drop of green food colouring. Make toast, and put your spread of choice on the other side. Eat it where a prank victim can see the bottom of the slice looks mouldy!

COOKIE CAPER

Replace a cookie's filling with toothpaste. Put it near the middle in the packet. Look sneaky when you offer everyone a cookie. They'll suspect the toothpaste prank, and won't accept. Let 'em watch as you eat cookies without toothpaste. They'll finally accept, and the prank cookie will be next.

PRANK-STAR'S PICK

CYBERPUNK SITCH

Casually talk with friends about your recent dreams, where you meet the future version of yourself. Make sure your convo is overheard! For the next few days, everyone can dress up like their futuristic version and walk past the prank victims to really shock them!
